

C. M. MEACHAM W. A. WILGUS.
ISSUED EVERY TUESDAY MORNING
BY MEACHAM & WILGUS.
PUBLISHERS AND PROPRIETORS.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.
One copy, one year, strictly cash in advance, $1.50
One copy, six months, $1.00
No subscriptions taken on time and all papers stopped when out.
One copy sent to any one residing us ten yearly cash subscribers.

HOPKINSVILLE BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

1882.

LAWYERS.

H. Bush, Water Block, with G. A. Chapman.
John H. Denney, Upper Block, opposite Court House.

L. A. Sturtevant, Cooper Block, over Phelps & Son.

DOCTORS.

G. J. & YOUNG, Homeopathists, Over G. J. & G. C. Druggists.

G. L. & CLARK, office in Henry Block, Main St.

L. G. ALEXANDER, M. D., over Gray & Buckner's drug store.

MILLINERS.

H. R. I. MARTIN, opposite Phoenix Block, Main St.

Mrs. H. E. BORDERS, Nashville Street, near opposite Christian Church.

DRUGGISTS.

J. R. ARMSTRONG, Henry Block, No. 1, Main St.

G. J. & G. C. DRUGGISTS, Main Street, Hopkinsville, Ky.

DENTISTS.

CAMPBELL & MEDLEY, Office in new Beard Building.

GROCERS.

PATRICK & YOUNG, Nashville Street, near the depot.

HARRISON & PHAUP, Corner Main and Spring Streets.

HARDWARE & IMPLEMENTS, M. C. & J. K. FURNESS, opposite Main St. Warehouse.

J. H. WINEFELD & CO., Corner Nashville and Virginia streets.

FURNITURE AND COFFIN DEALERS.

A. W. PYLE, up stairs, Henry Block, Main St.

C. O. THOMPSON, E. side Main Street, up stairs, Thompson & Colcord's building.

LIVERY STABLES.

BANNER STABLE, Bridge St., near Prince of Wales, Mr. Hopkins, Proprietor.

T. L. SMITH, corner of Virginia and Spring Streets.

POLK CANSLER, North corner Russellville and Virginia Streets.

HOPKINSVILLE TRANSFER, JAMES HIGGINS.

MANUFACTORY.

THOMAS & GANT, Excelsior Planing mill, Virginia St.

HOPKINSVILLE PLANING MILLS Railroad St., Jno. O. BREWER & CO., Proprietors.

OFFICIAL DIRECTORY.

CIRCUIT COURT.

John R. Grace Justice, Catoosa, Ky., B. T. Underwood, Clerk, Hopkinsville, Ky. Court is first Monday in March and September. BOARD OF COUNCILMEN.

John C. Latham, Chairman, E. P. Campbell, F. G. McDaniel, D. R. Ward, H. C. McCarty, M. L. Lusk, W. E. Morris. Meets 1st Tuesday in each month and subject to the approval of the Chairman. Meeting held in city court room.

QUARTERLY COURT.

A. V. Long, Judge, Meets 1st Monday in March, June, September, December. COUNTY COURT.

A. V. Long, Judge, John Brether Attorney, Meets 1st Monday in every month.

CITY COURT.

Joe McCarron, Judge, J. W. Downer Attorney, P. M. Owen, City Marshal.

COUNTY OFFICES.

John W. Brashier, Clerk, C. M. Brown, Sheriff, A. B. Long, Jailer.

SECRET SOCIETIES.

MOYAN COUNCIL, CHOSEN FRIENDS—Meets Second and Fourth Monday night in each month at K. of P. Hall, A. D. Rodgers, C. C., B. M. Harrison, Secretary.

MASONIC LODGE—Meets 1st Monday evening in each month, at Masonic Hall, Joe Carroll W. M., A. H. Clark, Secretary.

EVERGREEN LODGE, No. 38 KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS—Meets at K. of P. Hall, 2nd and 4th Thursday evenings in each month, Chas. M. Meacham, G. C., J. W. Cross, K. of R. & S. Endowment rank, 3rd Monday evening in each month. A. D. Rodgers, Pres., L. R. Davis, Secy. and Treas.

ODD FELLOWS—Third story, Hopkinsville Bank building, meets every Friday evening. Encampment meets every 1st, and 3rd Thursday evening.

A. O. U. W.—Meets at K. of P. Hall every 2d and 4th Tuesday evenings. P. M. Owen, M. W. W.

K. of H. LODGE—Meets at K. of P. Hall 1st and 3rd Tuesday nights of each month. W. F. Randall, R. R. O. C. Cave, Dictator.

KNIGHT TEMPLARS—Meets 4th Monday night in each month, at Masonic Hall.

COOK & RICE, PREMIUM LAGER BEER CITY BREWERY.

EVANSVILLE, INDIANA.
No. 314, upper Seventh St.

BEATTY'S BEER—Beats only THE PLATINUM BEER. Have Hobby in documents ready. Write or call on BEATTY.

THE SOUTH KENTUCKIAN.

VOLUME IV.

HOPKINSVILLE, KENTUCKY, TUESDAY, AUG. 29, 1882.

NUMBER 34.

LETTER FROM COLORADO.

(Special Correspondence.)

LAUDERDALE, Colo., Aug. 25, 1882.

The shortest route from Denver to Leadville is by the Denver & South Park narrow gauge railroad through the route via Canon City and the Arkansas Cannon is probably the most picturesque. The ride over the mountains by the former route is certainly as exhilarating as could be wished. A few miles from Denver the railroad strikes into the canon of the Plate, which it follows up through a narrow gage between the mountains for about fifty miles, gaining an altitude at the summit of 10,000 feet, or about 5,000 feet above Denver. The scenery through this canon is grand beyond description. At no place is it much more than a stone's throw in width, and most of the way the railroad bed has been excavated out of the solid rock. As we ascended the mountain cool breezes swept through the canon as through a funnel; yet in spite of this little discomfort passengers cannot resist the temptation to ride on the platform of the cars in order to enjoy the grand and impressive scenery. On one side of the track the Platte River, here a wild mountain stream, dashes down through the canon over an almost unbroken succession of rapids and cataracts. There and there a deep pool of clear water was provokingly suggestive of trout fishing, and the disciples of Isaac Walton will voluntarily divide their attention between these tempting spots and the rocks that rose hundreds of feet on either side, worn by the river into all fantastic shapes, and sometimes appearing almost to close that of Leadville is superlatively so.

It was about the middle of the summer in 1878 that the value of Leadville as a "carbonate camp" was discovered. California Gulch on which the present town stand was an old mining camp, having been worked for gold from 1859 to 1867, the yield running down from $5,000,000 in 1860 to about $150,000 in 1868, when the diggings were abandoned. In those days it was said the gold miners called their log-cabins with what they supposed was mud, but was really carbonate, worth $400 a ton. Who discovered the carbonates is a disputed question, but there is no doubt that W. H. Stevens, of Lake Superior mining fame, a resident of Detroit, was the first, if not the first, to undertake systematic mining operations for silver in this camp. Old Nevada and California miners scoffed at the idea of finding anything of value in the carbonates. They were soft, not hard. They were "pan-cake deposition," not veins. The oldest and wisest among them had never seen any metal extracted from such stuff. Still, Stevens had his adherents, too. Numbers of men swarmed upon the hills and began to sink shafts. They were speedily rewarded. Of the results which followed; the fabulous fortunes that have been made and the vast interests that have been developed, I shall have to tell you in another letter.

White & Murphy have abandoned the credit system. After a visit of four months among relatives in this country, Miss Lou Givens returned to her home near Coopersburg, Tenn., last Saturday. Miss Belle Keys, of the Woods Chapel neighborhood, will take charge of the school at this place next Monday, the twenty-first.

Miss Mary D. White, of this place, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Martha Roberts, near Empire, for the last two weeks. Mr. W. T. Hopper comes to the door with a smile like the poor man's leprosy, and reports a brand new girl at his house.

Mr. Tilly, mother of our estimable friend, S. C. Tilly, died at her home near Friendship, Caldwell county, last Monday night.

I paid a brief visit to your city last week. Judge Whifree was one of the first men I met on the streets. Mr. Whifree certainly manifested more gratitude for the honor conferred upon him by the people than any other I met.

Our venerable old friend Mr. Ben Curry, of Caldwell county, paid us a visit yesterday and placed him under our roof for a week. We are daily being inundated with the likes of him. He is a man of the great mass of man-kind like a pebble cast into the ocean, they make only a little ripple in the sea of life, and then die away on the shore of time, forgotten and unknown. An event of rather a strange character, we are informed, happened some days ago near Pelleville, on the Ohio river in this State. It is said that about three years since a man by the name of Gabbert, a resident of that village, for some cause committed suicide. His corpse was washed dressed, encased in a double-ribbed coffin, and interred in the family grave yard. This usual fine of mourning was passed by the family, and nothing more. A death notice in the paper save the neighbor's gossip usually indulged in about such things. Three years passed by and the wife, who had taken care of him in his widowhood, died.

Previous to this misfortune another misfortune befell the child. An ulcer formed on its tongue, and a surgical operation, which was performed to remove the ulcer, left the child a mute from which it never recovered. Placing herself unable to provide for the child, the lady placed it in the city alm-house, after it was large enough to take care of itself, and still has remained until yesterday.

For several weeks last winter advertisements appeared in the city papers, asking for information about William Harrington, aged about sixteen years, and requesting the information to be sent to John Harrington at Springfield, Tenn., where they were married Sunday.

I have never known an election to pass off so quietly as did ours.

The few short fellows got on the 7th.

A few of our own short fellows got on the 7th.

Some time ago Mr. James H. Hammontrout and Miss Sally Hopson received to the realities of marriage life and each being on the sunny side of twenty made applications to their parents for a certificate of approval; the girls parented in favor of the more dubious as well as the largest apples that have been exhibited here this year.

Some time ago Mr. James H. Hammontrout and Miss Sally Hopson received to the realities of marriage life and each being on the sunny side of twenty made applications to their parents for a certificate of approval; the girls parented in favor of the more dubious as well as the largest apples that have been exhibited here this year.

Some time ago Mr. James H. Hammontrout and Miss Sally Hopson received to the realities of marriage life and each being on the sunny side of twenty made applications to their parents for a certificate of approval; the girls parented in favor of the more dubious as well as the largest apples that have been exhibited here this year.

Some time ago Mr. James H. Hammontrout and Miss Sally Hopson received to the realities of marriage life and each being on the sunny side of twenty made applications to their parents for a certificate of approval; the girls parented in favor of the more dubious as well as the largest apples that have been exhibited here this year.

Some time ago Mr. James H. Hammontrout and Miss Sally Hopson received to the realities of marriage life and each being on the sunny side of twenty made applications to their parents for a certificate of approval; the girls parented in favor of the more dubious as well as the largest apples that have been exhibited here this year.

Some time ago Mr. James H. Hammontrout and Miss Sally Hopson received to the realities of marriage life and each being on the sunny side of twenty made applications to their parents for a certificate of approval; the girls parented in favor of the more dubious as well as the largest apples that have been exhibited here this year.

Some time ago Mr. James H. Hammontrout and Miss Sally Hopson received to the realities of marriage life and each being on the sunny side of twenty made applications to their parents for a certificate of approval; the girls parented in favor of the more dubious as well as the largest apples that have been exhibited here this year.

Some time ago Mr. James H. Hammontrout and Miss Sally Hopson received to the realities of marriage life and each being on the sunny side of twenty made applications to their parents for a certificate of approval; the girls parented in favor of the more dubious as well as the largest apples that have been exhibited here this year.

Some time ago Mr. James H. Hammontrout and Miss Sally Hopson received to the realities of marriage life and each being on the sunny side of twenty made applications to their parents for a certificate of approval; the girls parented in favor of the more dubious as well as the largest apples that have been exhibited here this year.

Some time ago Mr. James H. Hammontrout and Miss Sally Hopson received to the realities of marriage life and each being on the sunny side of twenty made applications to their parents for a certificate of approval; the girls parented in favor of the more dubious as well as the largest apples that have been exhibited here this year.

Some time ago Mr. James H. Hammontrout and Miss Sally Hopson received to the realities of marriage life and each being on the sunny side of twenty made applications to their parents for a certificate of approval; the girls parented in favor of the more dubious as well as the largest apples that have been exhibited here this year.

Some time ago Mr. James H. Hammontrout and Miss Sally Hopson received to the realities of marriage life and each being on the sunny side of twenty made applications to their parents for a certificate of approval; the girls parented in favor of the more dubious as well as the largest apples that have been exhibited here this year.

Some time ago Mr. James H. Hammontrout and Miss Sally Hopson received to the realities of marriage life and each being on the sunny side of twenty made applications to their parents for a certificate of approval; the girls parented in favor of the more dubious as well as the largest apples that have been exhibited here this year.

Some time ago Mr. James H. Hammontrout and Miss Sally Hopson received to the realities of marriage life and each being on the sunny side of twenty made applications to their parents for a certificate of approval; the girls parented in favor of the more dubious as well as the largest apples that have been exhibited here this year.

Some time ago Mr. James H. Hammontrout and Miss Sally Hopson received to the realities of marriage life and each being on the sunny side of twenty made applications to their parents for a certificate of approval; the girls parented in favor of the more dubious as well as the largest apples that have been exhibited here this year.

Some time ago Mr. James H. Hammontrout and Miss Sally Hopson received to the realities of marriage life and each being on the sunny side of twenty made applications to their parents for a certificate of approval; the girls parented in favor of the more dubious as well as the largest apples that have been exhibited here this year.

Some time ago Mr. James H. Hammontrout and Miss Sally Hopson received to the realities of marriage life and each being on the sunny side of twenty made applications to their parents for a certificate of approval; the girls parented in favor of the more dubious as well as the largest apples that have been exhibited here this year.

Some time ago Mr. James H. Hammontrout and Miss Sally Hopson received to the realities of marriage life and each being on the sunny side of twenty made applications to their parents for a certificate of approval; the girls parented in favor of the more dubious as well as the largest apples that have been exhibited here this year.

Some time ago Mr. James H. Hammontrout and Miss Sally Hopson received to the realities of marriage life and each being on the sunny side of twenty made applications to their parents for a certificate of approval; the girls parented in favor of the more dubious as well as the largest apples that have been exhibited here this year.

Some time ago Mr. James H. Hammontrout and Miss Sally Hopson received to the realities of marriage life and each being on the sunny side of twenty made applications to their parents for a certificate of approval; the girls parented in favor of the more dubious as well as the largest apples that have been exhibited here this year.

Some time ago Mr. James H. Hammontrout and Miss Sally Hopson re-

South Kentuckian

CHAS. M. MEACHAM, Editor.

HOPKINSVILLE, AUG. 26, 1882

For Congress.

We are authorized to announce HON. JAS. F. CLAY, of Henderson county, as a candidate for Congress in this, the Second, Congressional District of Kentucky, subject to the action of the Democratic District Convention.

We are authorized to announce HON. THOS. S. PETTIT, of Davies county, as a candidate for Congress in this, the Second, Congressional District of Kentucky, subject to the action of the Democratic District Convention.

The majority in the State for the school bill is about 6,000. This is not a large majority, but it will answer every purpose.

Col. Geo. F. Baker, editor of the Kentucky Law Journal, is announced as a candidate for Congress in the Louisville District against Hon. A. S. Willis.

The Star-route trial at Washington has been in progress already than eighty days and the end is not yet in sight.

Mr. Pettit, has always supported Christian county's candidates and the indications are that the bread cast upon the waters will return to him in his race for Congress.

The Elkhorn Register was cranky in regard to the Clerks race but its heat is level on the Gubernatorial question. It has declared for Hon. J. Proctor Knott.

The Supreme Lodge of the world, K. of P., held its biennial session at Detroit last week, 3,000 delegates being in attendance. John P. Linton, of Pennsylvania, was elected Supreme Chancellor.

A mouse has made her nest and is raising a litter of young ones in the skull of an Indian brave, in the office of the Owensboro Post. Even in death the noble warrior is the Nest-or of his race.

The wife of Jas. T. Happy, of Rowan county, gave birth to triplets last week and still there are people who will say that there is nothing in a name. That family must be one of litterary attainments.

The Congressional convention has been called to meet at Madisonville, Sept. 27th. The canvass will be red hot from this time on. The South Kentuckian will define its position next week, after hearing the candidates speak.

A recently advertised circus failed to materialize at Madisonville and the citizens extemporized a burlesque street parade. Fahrenheit Young was doubtless exhibited as the great and only Veneror, though he modestly refrains from mentioning it in his paper.

Jas. C. S. Blackburn and ex-Speaker W. C. Owens are having a monkey and parrot time in the race for the Democratic nomination for Congress in the Ashland District. Owens is a young man, but seems to be holding up his end to the discomfiture of his distinguished opponent. There are many people, who think Kentucky is suffering already from too much Blackburn, who would be glad to see Owens succeed, but the indications are rather against his success.

The Democratic Congressional convention of the Third District met at Franklin, Aug. 24, and nominated Hon. J. E. Haisell, of Warren county. The candidates before the convention were Haisell, of Warren, Rhea, of Logan, and Love, of Muhlenberg. The Haisell men secured control of the convention in the temporary organization. The Haisell faction then elected a permanent chairman and when nominations were declared in order, the Rhea men refused to place their candidate in nomination and Haisell was nominated on the first ballot. Logan, Cumberland, Muhlenberg and part of Simpson county, declining to vote. This disaffection is greatly to be regretted. The District is very close and with Dr. Hunter, as the Republican candidate, and Hubbard's corruption fund, the chances for Democratic success are anything but encouraging. The Haisell men, however, claim that the nominee will be elected by a good majority, as he is popular with the Republicans as well as with his own party.

Judge M. C. Given, of Dixon, has submitted a plan for a Congressional convention to the papers of the District with the request that they give their views on the subject. His idea is to divide the vote of each county pro rata between the candidates. The plan is very objectionable and would cause endless complications. For instance, suppose Christian county should hold a convention in which there were 225 voters. Now if 123 of these were for Pettit and 102 for Clay we would have the delegates instructed to cast 123-225ths of 9 votes for Pettit and 102-225ths for Clay. Multiply this state of affairs by the eight counties in the District and it would require fifty lightning calculators to count the votes in convention. Those who were in the late Superior Court convention here and saw the trouble caused by the fractional votes of Hardin county, got enough of the re rata plan. Let us stick to the old fashioned plan and give the whole county to the candidate having the majority in the county convention.

Tennessee Politics.

The condition of affairs in Tennessee is of national interest. The Democratic party has been for several years rent, torn, and dismembered, on the subject of the State debt. Two years ago the dissolution in the party resulted in the candidacy of two Democrats and Hawkins, the Republican candidate, was elected Governor, in a State that gave Hancock over 20,000 majority. Under the leadership of the Nashville World the compromise element of the party has been steadily gaining ground and a settlement was effected at a called session of the Legislature, which concurred in by the bondholders. Matters then began to assume a brighter hue and a convention was agreed upon by both wings of the party, which met in the early summer for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Governor. The convention met in Nashville, 1,400 delegates being in attendance. A joint organization was effected and Democrats everywhere were jubilant over the prospect of a permanent healing of the party breach. The balloting began and it soon became evident that Gen. W. B. Bate, of Nashville, was the choice of the convention and he was nominated by an overwhelming majority. Joy was felt everywhere and the party troubles were thought to be at an end. Gen. Bate was a man in every way worthy of the honor, which was conferred upon him without his asking it. In the midst of the glad acclamation that resounded throughout the State, a growl of discontent was heard and about 200 delegates, with ultra State credit ideas, bolted the regular convention and held a meeting of their own. They called a convention to meet some weeks later, which assembled and nominated Jas. H. Fussell for Governor. The bolters are largely in the minority and can accomplish nothing unless it is to secure the re-election of Hawkins, who is again the candidate of the Republicans. The Greenbackers also have a candidate, in the person of Jas. R. Bales, and so there are four candidates for Governor. At the last election 242,924 votes were cast as follows: Hawkins, Rep. 102,769; Wright, Dem. 79,191; Wilson, Low-Tax Dem. 57,424; Edwards, Gr. 3,541. It will be seen that the total Democratic vote is 136,615, 33,846 more than Hawkins received and yet the latter was elected by 23,787 votes.

In the present race it is probable that Hawkins will receive about the same vote, while Beasley will also poll his party vote. This leaves 136,615 votes to be divided between Bate and Fussell. It is claimed by well informed politicians that Fussell, the bolter, will not receive one-fifth of these. If this is the case, Bate will be elected by over 10,000 majority. The boom for Bate seems to be growing daily, while the Republicans are becoming more and more alarmed. Large amounts of money are being bet on Bate, by those who protest to know what the result will be. While the outlook is becoming more and more encouraging to the regular Democrats, there is still room for grave apprehensions that Hawkins may be elected. The action of the Fuselites is anything but patriotic, as they have no hopes of electing their candidate.

The Willard Hotel Lottery scheme has turned out to be a gigantic swindle, just as many people expected. After receiving thousands of dollars from the sale of tickets Whipple has made the announcement that the drawing will not take place. The mortgages have been foreclosed and the property has been sold and so have the ticket-holders. Whipple claims that all the money received was paid out for advertising, but few people believe that the "drawing" was not a dishonest scheme to fleece the public, from the beginning. It was sanctioned by the Legislature and many people allowed themselves to be swindled out of hard earned dollars. Whipple should be tried for obtaining money under false pretenses.

The Democratic Congressional Committee of the First District has called a convention to meet at Paducah, Oct. 3, to nominate a candidate for Congress. The Cadiz Telegraph declares that it is for Oscar Turner and will not be bound by the action of "partisan organizations." It is to be hoped that the convention will nominate a man who lives in the District. If one out of the District is preferred, Christian county can furnish several who are not only nearer the first District, but are able men like Col. Turner, of Louisville.

Hon. Jas. F. Clay, of Henderson county, is to-day announced as a candidate for Congress in this District. Mr. Clay is a gentleman of broad intellect, wide information and scholarly attainments. He is a cultured and polished gentleman, and should he receive the Democratic nomination he would represent the Second District in the 48th Congress with honor and distinction.

We to-day place, by authority, the name of Hon. Thos. S. Pettit, of Davies county, in our announcement column as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress in this the Second District. A long residence at Washington, as reading clerk in the House, has familiarized Mr. Pettit with all the duties of a Congressman and no man could represent this district with more honor, ability or usefulness. No man in the District is qualified to fill the seat of our distinguished fellow countryman, Hon. Jas. A. McKenzie, with more credit or distinction than Mr. Pettit.

The Declination of Mr. McKenzie

In this column we publish a card from Hon. Jas. A. McKenzie, declining to make the race for the Democratic nomination to a seat in the 48th Congress. He is forced to take this step by the critical condition of his eyes, which are again growing worse.

This announcement will be received with infinite regret all over the District. No man ever occupied a warmer place in the hearts of his constituents than Mr. McKenzie during the six years that he has represented the Second District. He has served his District, his country and his party, with a distinction and a fidelity seldom equaled and never exceeded. He retires from public life with the confidence, the esteem and gratitude of the whole South and the heartfelt plaudit of "Well done thou good and faithful servant," from the people of the District.

"Retiring from the race when his re-nomination was almost assured, he has shown a noble, self-sacrificing spirit that will not be forgotten by the people of his District and his State. He had only a few days before entered into an agreement with his competitors not to make a personal canvass of the District. As soon as his determination was effected, he immediately wrote to them releasing them from the agreement. He will in a few days leave for Eureka Springs, for the purpose of taking a course of treatment to restore his failing sight.

It is the earnest desire of his friends everywhere that he may succeed and that the complete restoration of his vision may be speedily accomplished. Mr. McKenzie modestly returns his thanks for the honors conferred upon him by the people whom he has served. In honoring him they have honored themselves. His gallant fight for the bill reducing the tax on quinine has made the name of "Quinine Jim," a household word in every home in the malarial districts. His tobacco bill made him the acknowledged champion of the agricultural interests and his great speech on the tariff made him a national reputation as a party leader and brilliant statesman. He has fought a good fight and will rest on his laurels.

To the Democracy of the 2nd Congressional District of Ky.

Being deprived of the privilege of making an active personal canvass of this District, for the Democratic nomination for a seat in the 48th Congress, by a defect of vision, which has recently become so serious as to cause grave apprehension of permanent blindness, I take this method of announcing to the people of the District that I shall not be a candidate for reelection. In declining to make the race, I deem this a fitting occasion to return my sincerest thanks to the people who have so long and so highly honored me. While my legislative service may not have come up to the measure of public expectation, I know I will be pardoned for saying that I have brought to the tasks and obligations confided to me by a generous constituency, the best ability with which I am endowed, and a heart filled with an earnest desire to subserve the best interests of my District and my country. I have the honor to be

Your obedient servant,

J. A. MCKENZIE

The negroes of Choctaw county, Alabama were detected in a plot last week which they had formed to massacre the white people on the 17th of September. The attack was to be general and the massacre wholesale. The ring leaders were arrested, one of them executed, and steps taken by the whites to protect themselves from similar uprisings in the future.

The furniture dealer does a safe business.

BEVERLEY.

Some time has elapsed since Spoon has beguiled the indulgence of your readers and we hope that will be sufficient excuse for our intrusion.

Beverley has had this summer (for once) her full share in the merry makings of the season; almost every week, some one of the neighbors has given a party or dance. Beverley is going to "get there" Ely."

The dance given by Mrs. Davis was quite a success, and we think Miss Bettie was her superior as a hostess. The party at Mr. Jas. Cayce's was extremely pleasant. Hurrah for Jim Jr. Girls there's a chance, set your wits ways or any way to catch him.

The night of the 17th inst., was most delightfully spent by a number of young ladies and gentlemen at the residence of our friend Esquire T. H. Major. We regretted that we could not be at two places at once; but our time was never more pleasantly spent, thanks to Miss Molina Radford. The dance given at her home was the grandest of the season, and she is beyond a doubt the best hostess in Christian Co. Always cheerful herself, she has the gift of making others so and one has but to be in her company to be happy.

We are indebted to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cayce for one of the most pleasant evenings of the season, every one seemed to be lively and full of fun.

Beverley neighborhood has been particularly blessed in having quite a number of lady visitors, and I can truthfully say that there is nothing so refreshing to the right of a Beverleyan as a pretty and entertaining young lady.

We to-day place, by authority, the name of Hon. Thos. S. Pettit, of Davies county, in our announcement column as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress in this the Second District. A long residence at Washington, as reading clerk in the House, has familiarized Mr. Pettit with all the duties of a Congressman and no man could represent this district with more honor, ability or usefulness.

No man in the District is qualified to fill the seat of our distinguished fellow countryman, Hon. Jas. A. McKenzie, with more credit or distinction than Mr. Pettit.

as the pleasure. "Good bye Darling" Miss Annie Tandy, from Texas, is visiting her relatives in Christian. A goodly number of the boys seem to have a strong notion of emigrating to that State.

Miss Ella Garth, a charming beauty from Trenton, has returned home. Gus when are you going to Trenton? We beg pardon for asking that question, since Rumor says Trenton supplanted Beyerley and Louisville has played thunder with Trenton.

Mr. R. H. Ford has sold out to his brother A. L. Ford, and expects to embark in the saw mill business. We feel sorry to part with so congenial a neighbor.

Mr. Sawney Dick Jones and family will depart this week for their new home in Texas. Good bye Sawney, no one will miss you more or wish you better luck than your sincere friend.

A Timely Suggestion.

ED. SOUTH KENTUCKIAN:

One week from to day Circuit Court commences and we wish to present the following roads for the early consideration of the Grand Jury. The Cadiz road from the town limits to the fork with Princeton road has basins extending across the road that will form ponds the first heavy rain. The side ditches should be plowed out and the basins filled. The hill near the fork is almost in an impassable condition. The abrupt fall from rock to rock, has crushed about twenty wagons during the year, for which the overseer of the road ought to be held responsible. Some parts of Major's lane is in a bad condition, and "Green's lane" the terror of teamsters—has no side ditches to drain the water off, but is lowest in the center of the road which will render it impassable if not fixed before winter. The county court should make a liberal appropriation to macadamize this lane since there is probably more heavy hauling done over this road than any other in the county. The Palmyra road leading from the town limits is generally in bad condition, and the pond formed in Forbes' lane, by an embankment thrown up for the purpose, is absolutely ridiculous and should receive the attention of the Grand Jury. Many parts of the road leading to Fairview are neglected and the overseers should either work their sections or throw up their positions in order that others may be appointed. These are only a few of the presentations that will be made during the court. While our road system is bad enough the negligence in its enforcement is even worse. The juror who rides to court over neglected sections every morning should present them, and the suitable tool that comes up to testify that a road is and has been in good passable condition when it has not been looked at during the year should be sent to jail. Let the Grand Jury do its duty and our road system will be most highly appreciated.

H.

Fast, brilliant and fashionable are the Diamond Dye colors. One package colors 1 to 4 lbs. of goods

10 cents for any color.

Adulteration has become a science. We burn our stock, and sand our sugar, and dilute our prayers with many words, and have failed so low that we use glue in our ice cream. What an appetizing combination is glue and cream. We don't know what the glue is made of, and for that matter we don't know what the cream is made of, though we have a strong feeling that any self-respecting cow would repudiate the idea that she had anything to do with its manufacture; but when the glue and the cream are properly compounded one is able to buy a heaping plate of the refreshment at the old price, while the profits of the saloon keeper are indefinitely increased. The beauty of the glue is that it makes the ice cream frothy, and induces the unwary into the belief that he gets a great deal more than he pays for. There may, however, be a moral side to this matter, and if glue taken internally will only make some meat stick to their word, and make others stick to their business instead of other people's, it will cease to be an adulteration and become a boon.

The furniture dealer does a safe business.

BEVERLEY.

Some time has elapsed since Spoon has beguiled the indulgence of your readers and we hope that will be sufficient excuse for our intrusion.

Beverley has had this summer (for once) her full share in the merry makings of the season; almost every week, some one of the neighbors has given a party or dance. Beverley is going to "get there" Ely."

The dance given by Mrs. Davis was quite a success, and we think Miss Bettie was her superior as a hostess. The party at Mr. Jas. Cayce's was extremely pleasant. Hurrah for Jim Jr. Girls there's a chance, set your wits ways or any way to catch him.

The night of the 17th inst., was most delightfully spent by a number of young ladies and gentlemen at the residence of our friend Esquire T. H. Major. We regretted that we could not be at two places at once; but our time was never more pleasantly spent, thanks to Miss Molina Radford. The dance given at her home was the grandest of the season, and she is beyond a doubt the best hostess in Christian Co. Always cheerful herself, she has the gift of making others so and one has but to be in her company to be happy.

We are indebted to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cayce for one of the most pleasant evenings of the season, every one seemed to be lively and full of fun.

Beverley neighborhood has been particularly blessed in having quite a number of lady visitors, and I can truthfully say that there is nothing so refreshing to the right of a Beverleyan as a pretty and entertaining young lady.

We to-day place, by authority, the name of Hon. Thos. S. Pettit, of Davies county, in our announcement column as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress in this the Second District. A long residence at Washington, as reading clerk in the House, has familiarized Mr. Pettit with all the duties of a Congressman and no man could represent this district with more honor, ability or usefulness.

No man in the District is qualified to fill the seat of our distinguished fellow countryman, Hon. Jas. A. McKenzie, with more credit or distinction than Mr. Pettit.

Boys prepare for to get out yer handkerchiefs, for I've a gwin to tell ye somethin' that's a gwin to make yer eye and yer hart ache."

Miss May Darling Marsh will leave us this week for her home in Louisville. Never before has it been that this country as Constitution, and no one has equalled the celebrated KIDNEY-WORT, which has been used in curing diseases of the kidneys for centuries. It is a powerful medicine, and will cure any disease of the kidneys.

KIDNEY-WORT
FOR THE PERMANENT CURE OF CONSTIPATION.
It is a specific action on this most important organ, enabling it to throw off constipation, stimulating the healthy secretion of the kidneys, and removing all disease and disorder from the body, giving the body a new and healthy condition, effecting the regular discharge of the kidneys.

Malaria, dyspepsia, &c., are relieved by this medicine.

It is a powerful medicine, and will cure any disease of the kidneys.

It is a powerful medicine, and will cure any disease of the kidneys.

It is a powerful medicine, and will cure any disease of the kidneys.

It is a powerful medicine, and will cure any disease of the kidneys.

It is a powerful medicine, and will cure any disease of the kidneys.

It is a powerful medicine, and will cure any disease of the kidneys.

It is a powerful medicine, and will cure any disease of the kidneys.

It is a powerful medicine, and will cure any disease of the kidneys.

It is a powerful medicine, and will cure any disease of the kidneys.

It is a powerful medicine, and will cure any disease of the kidneys.

It is a powerful medicine, and will cure any disease of the kidneys.

It is a powerful medicine, and will cure any disease of the kidneys.</

South Kentuckian.
HOPKINSVILLE, AUG. 29, 1882

Our subscription rates were reduced Oct. 18, 1881, to $1.50 strictly cash in advance. All unpaid subscriptions, beginning prior to that date, will be charged at old rates till paid. No subscriptions are taken now except for cash in advance, and all papers will be stopped when out, unless promptly renewed.

SOCIALITIES.

Mr. J. W. Warfield is at Cerulean. Miss Westfall returned Sunday.

Mr. C. M. Latham has gone East. Mr. Arthur Wallace is at Dawson. Miss LuLu Baker, of Bellview, is at Dawson.

Mr. R. W. Roach, of Clarksville, is in the city.

Miss Sallie Cook is visiting friends in Princeton.

Mr. Jas. E. Gowen spent last week at Dawson.

Miss Mollie Buckner has gone to Garrettsville to teach school.

Miss Nellie Higbee, of Princeton, is visiting at Mr. V. M. Metcalfe's.

Mr. Walter Fort, of Adams' Station, Tenn., was in the city Sunday.

Miss Ella Pratt, of Madisonville, is visiting Miss Fausto Coleman.

Dr. T. G. Keen has returned from Virginia and resumed his pastoral duties.

Mrs. W. H. Howe, of Nashville, was the guest of Mrs. Jas. M. Howe last week.

Miss Edith Hopper will leave for Richmond, Ky., this week where she will teach school.

Mr. Ed T. Campbell, will enter the Law University, at Lebanon, Tenn., in a few days.

Miss Lizzie Tandy returned home Thursday, after a two weeks' visit to friends in Cadiz.

Misses Minnie Lander and Dixie Morrison returned from Dawson yesterday.

Mr. L. H. Hubbard and wife, of Montgomery, and Miss Bettie Petree are at Dawson.

Mrs. G. H. Brandon and her sister Miss Leila Mills have returned from a visit to Cincinnati.

Miss Cora Bronaugh, of Missouri, has returned home after a protracted visit to Miss Jennie Bronaugh.

Misses Sallie and Hattie Foard, of Nashville, are visiting the family of Rev. J. C. Tate, on Russellville St.

Prof. R. T. Steinhausen and family have returned to this city and will reside here in the future.

Misses Willie and Nora Evans, of Russellville, are visiting the family of Mr. J. A. B. Johnson.

Misses Maude and Carrie Warren have returned from a visit to Old Point Comfort, Virginia.

Misses Annie Kennedy and Nannie Scruggs, who were the guests of Miss Mollie Martin left for Clarksville, Saturday.

Mr. Geo. H. Pike, one of the proprietors of the Muhlenberg Echo, was in the city last week and called on us.

Misses Florence and Lizzie Graves, of Nashville, Tenn., are visiting the family of their grandfather, Mr. Geo. O. Thompson.

Mr. A. F. Rash, of Madisonville, passed through the city last week en route home from Cadiz, where he had been on a courting expedition.

Mr. Andy Rogers has gone to Princeton to assist in the management of the branch house of Frankel & Sons.

Miss Mattie Johnson has returned from a visit to Nashville, Tenn., accompanied by her aunt Mrs. W. P. Phillips, who will remain several days.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Dunn, of Adams' Station, Tenn., passed through the city Thursday en route home from Cerulean Springs.

Hon. Jas. F. Clay, of Henderson, and Thos. S. Pettit, of Owensboro candidate for Congress, were circulating among our people several days of last week.

Miss Alice Stegar, of Maysville, Alabama, who has been visiting Miss Emma Cooper at Lafayette, returned home last Wednesday.

Miss Cassie Dean, of Louisville, who has been visiting Miss Mollie Grinner of Cadiz for some weeks, passed through the city en route home last week.

Miss Dixie Morrison, a bright and vivacious young lady from Perryville, is spending this week with Miss Minnie Lander.

Prof. C. H. Dietrich has returned from his summer vacation in the North and will resume his school duties next Monday.

Miss Trunio Baylor, of Texas, who has been visiting the family of her uncle, Dr. L. B. Hickman, for some months, returned to her home last week. Her brightness, vivacity, and winning manners made for her many friends during her sojourn here who will always welcome her return with unfeigned pleasure.

Capt. Sam. Gaines left for Frankfort last week to assume his duties as Capt. Harry's assistant in the Appellate Clerk's office. He leaves Christian county bearing with him the respect and esteem of all who know him and his hundreds of friends who will unite in wishing him success in his new field of action.

HERE AND THERE

W. F. Patton, Life Insurance. Circuit Court next Monday.

Minnie Maddern is all the talk. Oysters will soon be ripe enough to pull.

The fall session of South Kentucky College will begin next Monday.

The Muhlenberg grand jury returned only 28 indictments during its recent sitting.

We will begin publishing a series of "Reminiscences" from the pen of "Hiram" next week.

The Public Schools will open next Monday. Another teacher has been added, making eleven.

The Fair will be a success this year. The Company has the most energetic board of directors it has had for several years.

The members of the fire company have settled upon the 10th of September for their ball to raise funds to procure uniforms.

Our neighbor, the News, has reduced its subscription price to $1.50 a year and the paper will be an eight column sheet in the future.

The entertainments given by San Ah-Brah last week were meritorous but they were poorly patronized. His entertainments are all he claims for them and we commend him to the public.

A protracted meeting is in progress at the Cumberland Presbyterian church. It is being conducted by Rev. Mr. Tinnon, of Nashville, Tenn.

Mrs. Alvin Buck, Misses Rebecca and Mollie Major and Miss Kate Pendleton, all of Pennsylvania, are visiting Mrs. S. G. Buckner.

Messrs. Pettit and Clay, candidates for Congress in this District, will meet in debate at the court house next Monday, Circuit Court day.

George Barton, col., had his leg cut off by the car at Pembroke, Saturday night. He was drunk and was living on the track. He will not die from his injuries.

LOST—Somewhere on the streets of the city, a gold medal with the name of Andrew Seargent engraved thereon. If returned to this office, finder will be liberally rewarded.

The young ladies who constituted the excursion party to Mammoth Cave July 18th, are requested to meet at Mr. H. G. Abernathy's Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Alex. Jones, one of the porters of the Phoenix Hotel, was poisoned last week by drinking arrack, which he mistook for whisky. Medical assistance was promptly called and his life was saved.

Mrs. Lavinia Saunders died at the residence of her sons Sam and John Saunders, in this county, a few days since, aged 65 years. She was a consistent member of the Episcopal church.

The life-sized pictures of Miss Minnie Lander, the opening attraction for Holland's Opera House, now on exhibition, are the handsomest and best pictures of the kind ever seen in the city.

The SOUTH KENTUCKIAN job department is now well supplied with new type for book and pamphlet work. We are having a rush of business in that line and the work turned out cannot be excelled by any publishing house in this section.

Maj. Jno. W. Breathitt, County Court Clerk, was caned on the street last Friday evening by Mr. H. B. Garner. The cane was presented and not applied, and was a handsome silver-mounted curved hickory, neatly engraved on the head with the letters "J. W. B." from H. B. G."

Boys will take just $3.00 to admit you and your girl to the opening of Holland's Opera House, Sept. 22. The seats will cost $1.50. Of course every young man who goes will take his sweetheart; many of them have already made their engagements. No fellow can afford to take anybody else's sweetheart to such a high priced performance as "Wild Way."

The young ladies of Clarksville presented an elegant banner to the Clarksville City Guards last week. In speaking of it the Chronicle says:

"It is bound around with heavy golden silk fringe, floats from a staff mounted with a golden eagle, in full flight; from the staff, where the top of the flag is fastened, drops two heavy tassels of scarlet and white. It was manufactured by Baker & Monkeney, New York City, and is said by them to be one of the handsomest banners ever sent South."

The fall session of Cadiz Institute, of which Prof. H. B. Wayland is Principal, will begin next Monday, Sept. 4. Prof. Wayland will be assisted as heretofore by Miss Mary Guthrie, of Nelson county. Prof. Wayland is widely known as a thorough and experienced educator, having been a teacher for many years. Cadiz Institute is a boarding and day school for the education of both sexes, and those desiring to qualify themselves for teachers will be given special advantages.

The Public Schools of Hopkinsville will open on Monday Sept. 4th. The hour of opening is 8:30 A. M. It is hoped that all who can possibly do so will be prompt in starting at the opening of the year. A start at the opening of the year is especially important in the first year or D Primary Grade. The interests of the schools require that all pupils for this grade should enter within a reasonable interval of time, as within a month after the opening in September.

Miss Trunio Baylor, of Texas, who has been visiting the family of her uncle, Dr. L. B. Hickman, for some months, returned to her home last week. Her brightness, vivacity, and winning manners made for her many friends during her sojourn here who will always welcome her return with unfeigned pleasure.

Capt. Sam. Gaines left for Frankfort last week to assume his duties as Capt. Harry's assistant in the Appellate Clerk's office. He leaves Christian county bearing with him the respect and esteem of all who know him and his hundreds of friends who will unite in wishing him success in his new field of action.

Mr. Livy Buckner has returned from Fayetteville, Ark., where he has been living for some time.

All persons who desire to board students in South Ky., College will please report at once to Dr. Jas. A. Young, Chm., or W. P. Winfree, Sec'y.

Mr. S. A. Nance has opened up a family grocery and saloon on Russellville street opposite Polk Cansler's. He will keep a full stock of everything in his line and will be glad to have his friends call and see him.

The Commercial Hotel which has always been the most largely patronized of the many hotels at Dawson has come to the front with a new dining room capable of seating all its guests at once. Mr. Bottoms, the genial, kindly landlord has so far gone to secure the services of Morgan, the former steward and head cook at the Phoenix hotel in this city, and the boarders at the "Commercial" are happy.

We call the attention of our readers to the conspicuous card of Mr. Frank Gorman which appears elsewhere in this issue. Mr. Gorman's success in the merchant tailoring department has emboldened him to venture in the Gents' furnishing line. He has accordingly brought on a complete, well selected stock of Gents' outfitting. He calls attention also to his stock of Cheviots, Meltons, Cashmere, Cloths, &c., which is fuller than ever. Call and see him.

The Catalogue of Princeton Collegiate Institute comes to us this year with a good showing up for last year's work and an efficient faculty for another session. Dr. H. H. Allen, its honored president, took charge of the institute two years ago and is working it up to a superior standard. The building since it came into his charge has undergone some much needed repairs, in addition to some new music rooms, a noiseless study, a new platform for the chapel, new bath rooms, &c. In short he has brought order out of chaos and by his own individual efforts has secured a permanent endowment for the institution.

Married.

WORMALD—HENRY: At the bride's mother's, on south Main street, Thursday Aug. 24, at 11 o'clock A. M., Mr. B. A. Wormald, of New Orleans, to Miss Maggie Henry. They left on the noon train for their home in the South. They have our best wishes for lasting happiness.

Assignment of Teachers in the Hopkinsville Public Schools.

Mrs. McKenzie, D Primary, Room 1. Braithwaite, C " " 2. Miss Lander, C " " 3. Rutherford, B " " 4. Duncan, A " " 7. Mills, C " " 8. McRae, D Grammar " " 9. Kennedy, D & C " " 10. McDaniel, B " " 11. Pendegast, B " " 12. King, A " "

Hello, Clarksville!

The Cumberland Telephone Company has completed its line from here to Clarksville and the two cities were connected for the first time Saturday.

The rates of messages will be five cents per minute. The work between here and Madisonville is now being pushed ahead and when that gap is closed in a few weeks, the line will be through to Evansville and other river towns.

In the meantime the line is being extended to Nashville from Clarksville and so in a short while it will be completed from Evansville to Nashville. As soon as this is done lines will be run from this place to Cadiz Elkhorn and Princeton.

BURIED ALIVE

By Falling Slate in Empire Mines

Three men were crushed by falling slate, while at work in Empire coal mines, sixteen miles north of this city on Tuesday, Aug. 22nd. John McIntosh, Jr., a young married man, was instantly killed, and Freeman Dunning, his father-in-law, was taken out speechless and it was thought that the time that his injuries were fatal. A colored man was also badly hurt, but his injuries were trifling compared with Dunning's. The latter has been lingering in a precarious condition ever since and is now able to turn himself in bed and it is thought he will recover.

The accident was the result of carelessness in not propping up the slate in the mine.

Jesse Pyle Shoots Crit' Haley.

At a bran-dance at Hamp. Walker's spring, ten miles north of town, Saturday the 19th inst. occurred another of those brutal and cowardly shooting affairs that we have so frequently chronicled. Jesse Pyle and Crit' Haley had previously had a difficulty and it was this old feud that caused the shooting. Pyle was somewhat intoxicated and approached Hale at the bran-dance and asked "why don't you speak to me?" Hale replied that he did not care to notice a man who had called him a son-of-a-b—. Pyle then said "I did call you a son-of-a-b— and I still say it," and slapping him on the shoulder with one hand he fired a ball into his side with the other. The ball entered the right side, passing through the bowels and kidney and lodged near the back. Hale's condition was at first thought to be beyond medical skill, but he is still alive and is slowly improving and the chances are that he will recover. Pyle escaped and is still at large. Hale's father has offered a reward of $100 for the would-be murderer's arrest.

The Public Schools of Hopkinsville will open on Monday Sept. 4th. The hour of opening is 8:30 A. M. It is hoped that all who can possibly do so will be prompt in starting at the opening of the year. A start at the opening of the year is especially important in the first year or D Primary Grade. The interests of the schools require that all pupils for this grade should enter within a reasonable interval of time, as within a month after the opening in September.

Miss Dixie Morrison, a bright and vivacious young lady from Perryville, is spending this week with Miss Minnie Lander.

Prof. C. H. Dietrich has returned from his summer vacation in the North and will resume his school duties next Monday.

Miss Trunio Baylor, of Texas, who has been visiting the family of her uncle, Dr. L. B. Hickman, for some months, returned to her home last week. Her brightness, vivacity, and winning manners made for her many friends during her sojourn here who will always welcome her return with unfeigned pleasure.

Capt. Sam. Gaines left for Frankfort last week to assume his duties as Capt. Harry's assistant in the Appellate Clerk's office. He leaves Christian county bearing with him the respect and esteem of all who know him and his hundreds of friends who will unite in wishing him success in his new field of action.

DAWSON.

This, the newest, is the most popular summer resort in this part of the State. The wonderful properties of the water have attracted many, and it is hard to find a gay place. It is hard to find a spirit of utter abandon about the place that makes itself felt before you get off the train. It only requires a little stretch of the imagination as you gaze on the eager crowd, that through the platform when the train pulls in, to make them all realize of the old Epicurean School of Philosophy, which admonishes one to eat, drink and be merry, for tomorrow his funeral is preached.

The place seems to be full up all the time, not the saloon kind of full up, though there is no dearth of saloons. Every box house in easy distance from the spring has been converted into a miniature hotel. Every class and every vocation is represented, with as many different objects in view. We saw a geologist lugging an armful of rocks around, and handling them as tenderly as if they were so many golden nuggets. Politicians would discuss "Quinine Jim's" declination, and the relative merits of Pettit and Clay. The preachers went to the protracted meeting up the hill. Some pitched dollars and others picked up chips. The girls flirted and the boys were flirted with. All drank the water.

Among the young ladies who had come to make the place pleasant last week were Misses Minnie Lander, Sallie Cook, Anna Seager, of this city; Misses Lizzie McGraw and Leslie Wharton and Hattie Wilson, of Cadiz; Miss Dixie Morrison, of Pombrroke; Misses Charlie Ware and Lydia Grady and Misses J. A. Fleck and Trenton; Miss Luisa Miller, of Bellview; Misses Mamie Stokes and Mollie Duke, of Princeton; Miss Ade Lewis, of Guthrie, and many others whose names we did not gather. For lack of space we stop here, though the half has not been told.

DOWN TO DEATH.

A Swing Into Eternity.

Johnny Ransom, a twelve-year old son of Mr. C. W. Ransom, of West Fork, in this county, met his death in a frightful manner Saturday, the 19th inst. He was out at play with some of his play-mates when they came to a tree, overhanging one of the cliffs on the banks of West Fork, upon which was a grape vine. They proceeded to eat the lower end of the vine and young Ransom took hold of the vine and began to swing far out over the brink of the yawning precipice. While engaged in this dangerous pastime the vine gave way and he fell sixty-feet upon the crags beneath. He was instantly killed, his body being fearfully mangled. His arms and legs were broken, four ribs fractured, and his head mashed almost to a jelly.

Sales by Abney & Co. for August amount to 75 hds. ranging as follows:

Good Leaf from $8.00 to 7.00. Low from $6.25 to 7.00. Lugs from $5.00 to 6.25.</p

South Kentuckian.
JULY 20. Bridge St. bet. Main and River.
HOPKINSVILLE KY.

CLUB LIST.

We will furnish the following papers and periodicals with the SOUTH KENTUCKIAN at reduced rates:

Weekly Courier-Journal ..... $2.75
" Louisville Journal ..... 2.50
Farmers Home Journal ..... 2.00
Postmaster ..... 2.00
Godey's Lady's Book ..... 3.00
Bart's Magazine ..... 3.00
U. S. Monthly ..... 2.50

EXCHANGE SCINTILLATIONS

Nations fighting on a side, a scared dog, and lottery drawing reports may all be set down as allies, provided you can get them.—Glasgow Times.

Coleridge declared that a man never really forgot anything. Probably Mr. Coleridge never owed a debt or run a newspaper.—Arkansaw Traveler.

Pleasant nights.

Hot, dry and dusty again.

A good rain is badly needed now.—Madisonville Weather Bulletin.

A. M. Scales has been renominated for Congress in North Carolina. It is to be hoped that he will be placed in the hands of justice.—Arkansaw Traveler.

At Covington, August 10th, Mr. John S. Tamm and Miss Sallie Klein, "Gives Bachelors the shake." He'll come some glowing day to find he's made a small Miss Take.

When John Hallis was attacked by a crowd of roughs Bill Lemon aided him to rout the enemy. That was the kind of Lemon aid John preferred just then.—State Journal.

At last accounts Mr. Arabi Bey was still holding the fort. Mr. Bey has been raised in a Haven and under-stain is the secret of resisting large opposing forces.—Saturday Post.

The Texans Siftings has two contributors whose initials spell the name most usually applied to the editor of that sheet. They are J. Amory Knox and Alex S. Sweet.—Sunday News.

The failure of the United States circus to put in an appearance at Madisonville leads Fahrenheit Young to say: "We have three circus cuts we will sell dirt cheap. They cost us about $30. What do we hear bid for them?"

The shooting of men by women for real or imaginary wrongs has become epidemic. If it would only reach this place—but hold! It is not certain that the lauded masochists can be consistently classed as men.—Louisville Argus.

"Do you see that young man going along there?"

"Yes; what of it?"

"He's got a girl on the brain."

"Ah; judging from his appearance the girl must have a soft seat."—State Journal.

"He's the greatest masher I ever saw," said one fellow, speaking of another, the other day. "He can even manage to get noticed when the Louisville Legion fellows are around with their military clothes on." That settled it.—Louisville Argus.

When certain unsophisticated country Democrats was asked to go to a certain place and hear a very prominent gentleman speak on the tariff, he began walking off and said: "I won't go and hear no man who puts on so much style as to speak on that kind of a thing. The man who speaks on a wagon, or on the stump of a tree, is the man I want to hear."—State Journal.

In the ladies' cabin of a certain ferryboat this notice is posted: "The seats in this cabin are reserved for the ladies. Gentlemen will please not occupy them till the ladies are seated." Can this mean that the gentlemen are to occupy the seats after the ladies are seated? That would rather reverse the natural order of things, wouldn't it?—Sunday Argus.

A $10,000 dress is said to be occasionally visible at one of the Saratoga hotels. Confound the luck! When Mrs. Anous left for the summer, it was expressly understood that she was not to wear any of her $10,000 dresses at Saratoga. Fancy a woman dressing like that at a one horse whoring place where they charge only $7 per day for board! People will say she's stuck up.—Louisville Argus.

Wire Fences As Telephones.

Some observing genius has suggested that the loneliness of home life on the Western prairies, where farm houses are often miles apart, may be alleviated by a general utilizing of fence wires for telephonic communication. As in some sections of the country all the fences are of wire most of the "plant" for several private telephones are already in possession of every farmer, so only terminal fixtures are necessary to a free interchange of gossip between families that are too far apart for neighborly calls in bad weather. The plan certainly has attractive features. If it were adopted, the farmer's wife, when so tired of the monotony of home life that she can get no comfort indoors except by slapping the children and pecking at her husband, can drop into a rocking chair near the telephone and chat with a distant neighbor as if she never had a trouble in her life. Then she could give her husband a chance and let him swap horses and exchange crop prospects with the "boys" at the nearest village store. Aside from its convenience such a telephone would be a great educator, for when in use by the gentler sex it would do what society rules have always been unequal to—it would compel women to talk at a time.—New York Herald.

A Difficult Problem Solved.

The desire for stimulants is becoming a monstrous evil and how to overcome it is a serious question with reformers. Parker's Ginger Tonic fairly solves the difficult problem. It invigorates body and mind without intoxicating, and has brought health and happiness to many desolate homes.—Enquirer.

Entirely Satisfactory.

Ladies wishing a perfume that combines novelty delicacy and richness, find Floriston Cologne entirely satisfactory.

The Show That Didn't Show Up.

Early Saturday morning people began pouring into town by every conceivable vehicle, conveyance, some on foot, some on horse-back, some with ox teams, some in buggies, and by ten o'clock a large crowd was here. The United States Circus was to have exhibited here that day, but a lot of fellows had it attached at Louisville for debt and wouldn't let it loose, so it failed to materialize as advertised. Great was the disappointment. The people were hot and tired, and they grumbled loudly, though many still believed or hoped that by some unaccountable means it would manage to get here sometime during the day. About 9 a.m. Louis and Charlie Shiminel, the band boys and one or two other parties determined on getting up a street parade, and give the people some diversion. About 10 o'clock the procession started at the mills and started. When the first notes of the brass band were over on the people's ears they began to pour out on the streets, thinking the show had begun. The delusion was soon apparent when the procession came to where they were gathered. Leading the procession were two men on mules, with a negro boy standing up behind them on each mule. Following that came the manager's team, a dapple gray, drawing a faded green spring wagon, with large red cotton handkerchiefs floating in the breeze from each corner. Then came the band wagon, drawn by two oxen, with the members of the band arrayed in the most fantastical, grotesque uniforms. Then came the cages of wild beasts. One wagon had a large queen-size crate, with Widdler's big dog and a small boy with a red jacket and false face to represent the lion and tamer. Chas. Shiminel was the descriptive orator, and his stentorian voice was constantly heard above the din and roar, calling attention to the great black African lion captured in his native jungle, near Widdler's. Then came another wagon with a red fox on a box, then more wagons and teams, with a profuse display of red handkerchiefs, representing the flags of all nations. Screams and yells of laughter greeted the procession everywhere. The people appreciated the dog, and enjoyed it immensely. It was universally voted the best street parade ever seen here, and hundreds of people said they enjoyed it better than any show they ever saw. We cannot give anything like a true delineation of its grotesqueness and ridiculous character on paper. It had to be seen to be appreciated. It put everybody in good humor, and people went home satisfied and happy.—Madisonville Times.

In chronic disorders resulting from fixed bad habits of mind and body, the removal of evil to be permanent, must necessarily be gradual. Although in some instances it is slow, Brown's Iron Bitters are always sure and never fails to restore perfect health to the physical organization. It is complete strengthener.

Review of the Session.

Congress was in session 245 days, the longest continuous session, except one, in many years. Aside from the general appropriation bills, which exceed those of last year upwards of $75,000,000, the present session has passed the apportionment bill giving the house 232 members after March 4, 1883; the polygamy bill, the Lubbock Commission, Chinese bill (which last, like the river and harbor bill, passed over a veto) tariff commission bill, re-established the Alabama Claims Commission, extended National bank charters, amended laws regulating carriage of passengers by sea and regarding immigration, passed the knit goods bill. The army and navy appropriation acts contain much general legislation, reorganizing those branches of the service. There has been a liberal investment of surplus revenue on public buildings in all parts of the country. Each bill of Congress had a sensational investigation, starting with the alleged whisky ring in the Senate, and the Peru-Chili-Shipibo affair in the house.

Aside from pensions, the number of private bills passed is remarkably small. The general remark is that it has been a bad year for the lobby. The absence of jobs in view of a plethoric Treasury is one redeeming feature of the session just ended.

Since the first meeting of the present Congress the Senate has had three presiding officers, Republicans, Democratic and Independent, without a change of the other officials.—Louisville Commercial.

"Buchupaiwa," Quick, complete cure, all annoying Kidney, Bladder and Urinary Disease. $1. Druggists.

A Canine Politician. A local paper gives an account of a very intelligent dog in Witslow. The animal was in the habit of going every day to the railroad, and, as the train passed, the guard threw out a Standard for a clergyman who lived hard by, which the dog seized and carried to his master. One day the dog came back to the rectory without a newspaper. On inquiry the guard insisted that he had acted as usual, but, upon making a search, it was found that a Daily Telegraph, and not a Standard, had been thrown out, and the dog had refused to eat anything to do with it.—London Paper.

Skinny Men. "Well's Health Renewer" restores health and vigor, cures, Dyspepsia, Importance, Sexual Debility. $1.

R. H. Holland has about completed his $30,000 opera house at Hopkinsville. It is said to be one of the most artistic and handsomely arranged pieces of architecture in the State. It has a seating capacity of 650, and would be the pride of any town in Kentucky. Mr. Holland, familiarly remembered here as "Dick Holland," is an old student of Bethel College, and was at one time well known to the citizens of Russellville. He is one of the most stirring and enterprising young business men in Hopkinsville, and has the best wishes of all his old friends here.—Herald Enterprise.

Mr. Ernest Sylvester, a rich Wall street broker living in Hoboken, N. J., opposite New York City, writes: "The excessive strain of nervous excitement resulting from stock speculation and too high living made quite an invalid of me. Brown's Iron Bitters restored me to perfect health and strength."

Entirely Satisfactory. Ladies wishing a perfume that combines novelty delicacy and richness, find Floriston Cologne entirely satisfactory.

HOSTETTER'S
CELEBRATED

BITTERS

BITTERS

BITTERS

BITTERS

BITTERS

BITTERS

BITTERS

BITTERS

BITTERS

BITTERS

BITTERS

BITTERS

BITTERS

BITTERS

BITTERS

TUTT'S
PILLS

PILLS

PILLS

PILLS

PILLS

PILLS

PILLS

PILLS

PILLS

PILLS

PILLS

PILLS

PILLS

PILLS

PILLS

PILLS

BUSINESS CARDS.

W. M. FEQUA. ANDREW SERGENT

Drs. FUQUA & SERGENT

Physicians and Surgeons,

On Main Street in

CITY BANK BLOCK.

Main Street, HOPKINSVILLE, KY.

Apr. 18-22-25.

Jan. 51-12m.

1872.

ARTIFICIAL TEETH

Inserted in Fifteen minutes after natural ones are extracted, by

R. R. BOURNE,

DENTIST.

Main St., over Bank of Hopkinsville,

HOPKINSVILLE, KY.

Dec. 1-12.

1872.

C. H. BUSH,

ATTORNEY AT LAW,

HOPKINSVILLE, KY.

Office with G. C. Chapman, Esq., in